Pick up of Checks will be at the Queen's stage on the Sunday of both weekends (if you are there for both weekends, you can have the option of picking up one lump-sum check.) Performances generally take place, rain or shine. In the event that weather conditions prevent the performer(s) from safely presenting their show, an alternate program must be substituted or the DCRDG, Inc. will adjust the performer fee accordingly. In some extreme situations, the DCRDG, Inc. may choose to close the event for safety reasons, a widespread or national financial, military, or other crisis, making that day's performing contract null and void unless otherwise specified here.

Additional terms required by either the performers OR the DCRDG, Inc.

Faire Rules:

- NO sunglasses - Prescription glasses are acceptable, but no sunglasses may be worn.
- NO cigarette/cigar smoking – This applies to both your booth and on festival grounds between 10 AM - 6 PM. (period style (clay) pipes & tobacco are permitted but NOT in the woodlands)
- NO selling of drug paraphernalia.
- NO watches or other 21st Century items on display.

Drugs/Alcohol - Performers agree to refrain from illegal drugs AND alcohol consumption prior to the beginning of the Festival Day until after Closing Gate.

Performers shall recognize that the Door County Renaissance Fantasy Faire is considered a "Family Friendly Show" and will refrain from swearing and/or sexually explicit language both during their shows and in street theater situations. Innuendo is acceptable, but check with Faire Coordinator(s), should you have any questions regarding this.

Limits of Liability: The DCRDG, Inc., the Faire Committee, the Faire host (Kuehn Acres) are not responsible for any loss or damage to items left overnight. In consideration of the Performer(s) being allowed to participate in the Door County Renaissance Fantasy Faire, the Performer(s) hereby takes action for it/him/herself, executors, administrators, heirs, next of kin, successors and assigns as follows: Performer(s) agree to hold the DCRDG, Inc., the Faire Board and Committee members, and the Faire host (Kuehn Acres), harmless in the event of accident, injury, or damage to property or individuals.

Performer(s) waives, releases, and discharges the DCRDG, Inc., The Faire Board and Committee members, the Faire host (Kuehn Acres), their staff, volunteers, agents and representatives from any and all liability for death, personal or property injury or damage, disability, theft or actions of any kind which may hereafter accrue to Performer(s) during participation in or during travel to and from the Faire.

Indemnification: Performer(s) further agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the DCRDG, Inc., the Faire Board and Committee members, and the Faire host (Kuehn Acres), from any and all liabilities or claims, damages and expenses asserted against or incurred by the Event made by other individuals or entities as the result of any action or inactions of the Performer(s) or their employees during the Faire. This obligation of the Performer(s) shall survive the termination, completion or expiration of this signed agreement.

Violations of this Agreement: The DCRDG, Inc. reserves the right to remove or deny future participation in the Door County Renaissance Fantasy Faire to any Performer(s) or other participant who willfully violates this agreement or any local, state, or federal law, harasses other participants or visitors, or otherwise disrupts the event. Signing below indicates you have read and understand that you and your staff will abide by the rules set forth by the Producers of the DCRDG, Inc. in this contract.
